Release and Indemnity for Owner/ Guest/ Rider/ Visitor/ Student

I, _____, as an owner of a horse or horses boarded at KISMET FARM, or as a guest, spectator, visitor, or rider on the premises of KISMET FARM, acknowledge and understand that entering in, on, about or upon your property and related improvements and facilities for any purpose, whether for viewing or participating in equestrian or other related or unrelated activities, may present certain danger or lifeguards that could result in injury or loss, damage or death to persons, animals or property. I have been hereby advised and warned that all owners, guests, visitors, spectators, and family members should purchase and wear an A.S.T.M. approved Helmet at all times, while participating in any equestrian activity at or in conjunction with KISMET FARM to help prevent any horse related injuries.

In the event of an injury, loss, damage or death or any other claims thereof by or through me, I hereby and irrevocably release KISMET FARM and any subcontractors, visitors, spectators, guests, and family members from any and all claims, costs and expenses relating thereto, and furthermore, I shall indemnify and hold harmless the above from and against all such injury, loss, damage or death, including, but not limited to court cost and reasonable attorneys fees.

The equine limited liability act was passes by the Texas House and Senate May19, 1995 and went into effect September 1, 1995 as follows.

Under Texas law (chapter 87, civil practice and remedies code), an equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risk of equine activities.

The automated entry gate at Kismet Farm is provided for the security of the property, both for unauthorized entry and as secondary fencing for containment of horses. All horse owners, riders, guests, visitors, or spectators who enter the property are responsible for proper operation of the gate. Any damage to either vehicles or the entry gate is the responsibility of the individual involved in an incident.

I have read the above statement I am 18 years of age or older and legally responsible for making this decision. If under the age of 18 please have a legal guardian read and sign. Guardians are responsible for minors under the age of 18 years.
